Av alle disse «settings» (innstillinger) er det noen som er viktige å se på. Settings har diverse faner. Første fane er Account (konto). Her kan du bl.a. endre navn og username (brukernavn)

The image shows a screenshot of the Twitter website's settings page for a user named 'joopcup'. The top navigation bar includes the Twitter logo, a search bar, and links for Home, Profile, Messages, and Who to Follow. The user's profile picture and name 'joopcup' are visible in the top right. The main content area is titled 'joopcup's settings' and features a horizontal menu with tabs for Account, Password, Mobile, Notifications, Profile, and Design. The 'Account' tab is selected and circled in red. Below the tabs, the 'Account' settings are displayed, including fields for Name (Joop Cuppen), Username (joopcup), Email (joop.cuppen@seniornett.no), Language (English), and Time Zone ((GMT+01:00) Stockholm). A 'Tweet Location' section is also visible at the bottom. On the right side, there is a 'Tips' section with advice on changing the user name and protecting the account.

Tips
Change your Twitter user name anytime without affecting your existing tweets, @replies, direct messages, or other data. After changing it, make sure to let your followers know so you'll continue receiving all of your messages with your new user name.
Protect your account to keep your tweets private. Approve who can follow you and keep your tweets out of search results.

Password

Be tricky! Your password should be at least 6 characters and not a dictionary word or common name. Change your password on occasion.

Note: If you have trusted a third-party Twitter service or software with your password and you change it here, you'll need to re-authenticate to make that software work. (Never enter your password in a third-party service or software that looks suspicious.)

- Fanen Mobile gir deg mulighet til å få eller sende twitter-meldinger (Tweets) med mobiltelefonen din
